To

C.S. Balasundaram Iyer Esquire B.A.,

Chief Secretary to the Government of His Highness
the Maharaja of Mysore,

Sir,

With reference to Government Proceedings No. J. 87"/Police 40-17-2 dated 5-9-1917, notifying certain Criminal gangs living in the Districts of Bombay and Madras, which are adjoining the State, I have the honor to forward herewith up to date copies of the list of Criminal Tribes declared in Madras Bombay and Hyderabad.

The tribes underlined in the list who have relations in the State and who were supposed to frequently enter the State for comitting crime were at first recommended and notified as per above notification.

Exeprience has however shown that memebrs of other Criminal Tribes declared elsewhare and not included in the above notification have on several occasions visited the State.

It was also resolved in the recent Delhi Conference that membens of Criminal Tribes found outside their limits should be returned to their domicile and this cannot be legally done without those tribes are notified here.

I therefore request that, in modification of the above notification, the Government may be pleased to notify all the tribes mentioned in the enclosed 3 lists, under section 19 of the Mysore Criminal Tribes Regulation of 1916, so that they may be brought under the operations of Section 20 of the said Regulation whenever they are found in the State limits.

Draft notification is also submitted for approval.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Inspector General of Police.
